I was very privileged to be part of #CapTech2023 and enjoyed it immensely. The reason I was on about the future of property and how technology is going to change the way business is conducted. #CapTech2024 as I understand is going to be bigger and better this year. Anyone who is interested in technology and how the technology will change business and lives should attend #CapTech2024. #CapTech2024 is a global event as there is wide variety of people from all around the globe. Through #CapTech2024 there is an ability to meet people, deals are done because there is exchange of ideas.

Kunwar Aditya Saxena
CFO at CIMET

CIMET proudly partnered and sponsored #CapTech2023. I was very impressed with the quality of the people who attended and the business deals which were introduced. The panel discussions were insightful and thought provoking. We are looking forward to partnering and sponsoring #CapTech2024 which is gearing to be an event much bigger and more engaging.
